

Electrical Engineer

Located in Dayton, Ohio, our client, Nauman & Zelinski has an exciting opportunity to join their team as an Electrical Engineer. You will enjoy a flexible (M-F) schedule in a relaxed work environment, limited travel, interesting work, and tons of professional development and growth. On top of that, the talented team of 10 oftentimes feel more like family than coworkers!

This Engineering Consulting Firm goes above and beyond to provide their clients quality engineering design solutions and have a track record of nearly 20 years of success and organic growth. They partner with local clients in a variety of industries with a specialty in fire protection, plumbing, mechanical & electrical systems. Their client portfolio includes: Healthcare, Public Works and Government, Higher Education, industrial, Business, First responders and many more.

If you are an Electrical Engineer who is eager to continue growing your knowledge and skills while working for an established, local company - let's talk!

Key Activities

- Prepare basic electrical plan details and outlines, cost estimates, and perform calculations in support of broader engineering activities involving the design of equipment, components, or systems.
- Gather and record information to be used for preparation of construction documents.
- Review vendor shop drawings and submittals to assure compliance with specifications.
- Collaborate with Field Observation Colleagues to perform field observations and tests, measurements, collect field data, and prepare field reports and related documentation.

Qualifications & Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Electrical or Architectural Engineering from an ABET accredited program
- 2+ years prior relevant experience regarding electrical systems engineering in the building trades environment
- Professional Engineering (PE) or actively pursuing a Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) Certification in order to be prepared for Registration
- Familiarity with automated engineering and design equipment
- Working knowledge of software packages such as MS Office

Skills & Abilities

- Self-motivated and eager to learn
- Strong communication skills to work effectively internal team members and external clients
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills with the ability to produce timely, accurate results

Why join forces with our client?

To be part of a culture that has been described by the team as “a breath of fresh air”. To join a company values family and supports work-life balance. Additional perks include a Competitive Salary, PTO, and Comprehensive Benefits Package.